BRIEF INTERVENTION COURSE (BIC 331)

Digital Responsibility

COURSE DESCRIPTION

"How should I behave in the digital world?" The Digital Responsibility brief intervention course is created for teen students. By exploring the pros and cons of the digital age, we can better understand its impact on our daily lives and consider how to navigate its complexities thoughtfully. Responsible device use means knowing when technology adds value and when it should be put away.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES & SKILL DEVELOPMENT

- Making safe and responsible choices online
- Communicating respectfully in digital spaces
- Understanding the impact of digital actions and footprints
- Opportunity and growth
- Personal responsibility and safety
- Self-Awareness

RECOMMENDED USES

- Self-Directed—Student does most of the course work independently with a coach or mentor.
- Group—To be completed at school in a group format with a facilitator.
- Hybrid—A combination of self directed learning and group instruction.
- Live Instruction—Facilitator led digital curriculum, suitable for both in class or virtual.
